

David K. Lee
Executive Director
Governor's Office on Asian
Pacific American Affairs

David K. Lee practiced law from 1998 to 2006, in the areas of civil and criminal litigation, estate planning and estate administration. He was admitted to the Maryland Bar in 1998 and to the District of Columbia Bar in 2002.

Mr. Lee is involved with the Asian Bar Committee and the Special Committee for Appointments of the Maryland State Bar Association (MSBA). He is especially proud of his participation in the Leadership Academy, a year-long MSBA program designed to recruit and train young lawyers, particularly minorities, to take on leadership roles within the bar association. During law school, Mr. Lee clerked for the Office of Attorney General of Maryland and for the law firm of Reese and Carney in Columbia, Maryland.

Mr. Lee is a 1990 graduate of Phillips Academy in Andover, Massachusetts. He received his B.A. in Economics from the University of Michigan in 1994, and earned his Juris Doctor degree from the University of Maryland School of Law in 1998.

Between college and law school, Mr. Lee spent a year working for an economic research institute in Seoul, Korea. A native of South Korea and fluent in Korean, Mr. Lee immigrated to the United States at the age of five. His parents made tremendous sacrifices to provide the opportunity for a better education for him. Their work ethic and sacrifice have greatly influenced Mr. Lee's personal and professional life.

He and his wife, Susan, a pediatrician in Ellicott City, live in Howard County with their three young children, Ryan, Joshua and Kara.
